

This model allows maximum flexibility, communication and ease of command between each echelon, whether sideways, upwards or downwards. Section Leaders are responsible to know where the cadets are under their charge, uniform issues, questions and answers, a coach, a mentor. Ensure cadets under their charge are aware of announcements and upcoming events, Phone calling their cadets for attendance and absences, and making themselves available when needed.

